In all, it was an electrified atmosphere with students and teachers seen chatting and dancing.

Manasvini Agarwal

Grade - III

creativecorner

I have written this poem for my mother.
- Manasvini Agarwal, Student

Like a flower you blossom, like a rainbow you are colorful Like a butterfly you are pretty, like water you are important
When it is about sky,
you are Sun to me
When it is about jewellery, you are Gold to me
When it is about life,
you are oxygen to me
Mother sweet mother
You are 'everything' to me

AST Institute of Aeronautics

Grade - 6 to 8

On the 20th of December, 2017 students of CP 6 to 8 visited the AST institute of Aeronautics where they learned about a plethora of 'air - instruments' and everything else related to old and modern aircrafts. Children were informed about the various components of an aircraft, its internal features as well as external patterns. After the brief on aircrafts, they were taken to the 'hardware' store, where they learned about the workings of an aircraft. The trip was overall an enriching experience.
